1. After September 21, your application fee will not be refunded for any reason.
2. Food and Drink sales require a Food/Drink application AND you may NOT GIVE away FOOD, WATER, or DRINKS or use them as a promotional item without written permission.
3. Vendors/ Organizations are responsible for bringing their own tables, chairs, and tents.
4. Vendors/Organizations agree to setup no later than 11:00 am the day of the festival and to remove your booths and items by 6:00 pm. (The festival hours are Noon-5:00 pm.)
5. Vendors/Organizations agree to clean up their booth area after the end of the event and remove any items brought by the vendor/organization.
6. Alamance Pride is a community oriented and family friendly event. Nudity, indecency, or conduct inappropriate for a diverse audience will not be allowed. Information and items of a graphic sexual nature cannot be distributed. Information or items provided for education regarding sexuality or safe sex are invited.
7. Alamance Pride is an alcohol and drug free event. There should be no alcohol or drugs at or around a vendor or organization's booth.
8. Alamance Pride cannot guarantee the weather, the size of the crowd, or otherwise assure against potential disaster. Therefore, no refunds will be provided if your organization or business cannot realize its expectations on the day of the Festival. There is no rain date planned since the event will take place regardless of weather.
9. No vendor or organization shall sell or offer any items imprinted, emblazoned, or marked with any or any combination of the words "Alamance Pride" without express written permission of the Alamance Pride Board of Directors.
10. Noise, smoke, or visual displays shall not interfere with neighboring vendors or with the enjoyment of the public at the festival.
11. Vendors/organizations agree to hold the Alamance Pride Board of Directors and the City of Burlington harmless from all liability related to loss, damage, or injury to persons or property in any manner arising out of performance of this agreement, whether resulting from negligence or not.
12. Vendors/Organizations shall not assign their booth space to any other individual, business, or organization.

13. Vendors are responsible for all sales taxes, licenses, and insurance required by North Carolina law.
14. The Alamance Pride Board of Directors reserves the right to make a judgment regarding whether or not a booth is disruptive or interfering with the celebration, and reserves the right to request any items be removed from public view.
15. Vendor/Organization spaces will be assigned by the Vendor Coordinator at check-in. There is space to unload but cars/trucks/vans must be moved to public parking facilities surrounding the festival site. Storage of booth items must be within the assigned booth space.
16. NO ELECTRICITY IS PROVIDED.
17. Alamance Pride reserves the right to decline participation at this Festival to individuals, groups, or organizations which do not reflect the mission, vision, and values of our organization.
